Miss E. T. Hungerford,
7 East 48th Street,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Madam:

In answer to your telephone call of yesterday, the best thing for you to do would be to come to this Museum some week day to consult a book on Papal Decorations that we have here. This gives all the decrees and orders for each decoration, ceremonial costume and uniforms worn, as well as colored illustrations of the different classes of orders. I think this would be far better than any description that I could give you.

Very truly yours,

Curator
